This matter comes before the Court pursuant to the Application of the United States of America seeking an Amendment to an Order that authorized the continued interception of wire communications, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 2518, to and from the cellular telephone identified by telephone number (843) 325-6981, having electronic serial number (ESN) 355605008426204 and international mobile system identifier (IMSI) 310150005511844 (hereinafter referred to as the "Target Telephone"), which is subscribed to by Rodrigo AGUILAR, with a billing address of 1155 Indigo Avenue, Apartment #45, Georgetown, South Carolina. On November 3, 2005, this Court issued the heretofore-mentioned Order that authorized the continued interception of wire communications occurring over the TARGET TELEPHONE (which is hereafter referred to as the Original Extension Order).

If the TARGET TELEPHONE is not equipped with a CALLER ID feature, Cingular Wireless is to add to the existing service the CALLER ID feature with no record of said feature going to the subscriber of the TARGET TELEPHONE and that such information yielded from the CALLER ID device be provided to the DEA, including information pertaining to calls made during the period of time between November 13, 2005 and the implementation date and time of this Amended Order by Cingular Wireless. Cingular Wireless shall take all necessary steps to insure that the addition of said feature shall not be reflected on the customer's bill or in any other way be disclosed to the customer; and it is further

ORDERED that, if technologically feasible, Cingular Wireless shall provide agents of the DEA with information yielded from a cellular telephone digital and cell site monitor system and mobile tracking device; and it is further

ORDERED that, Cingular Wireless shall be compensated by DEA for the reasonable expenses incurred through their compliance with this Amended Order; and it is further
